DJ CHA

OPEN FORMAT DJ

BIOGRAPHY

Connecticut native, DJ Cha, began her official music career in 2023, 4 years after moving to Boston, MA. Her love for music began in middle school as she became an avid music lover after being exposed to various genres by close family and friends. DJ Cha grew a deep love for Hip-Hop and R&B while curating a variety of playlists for herself and friends. What started off as a hobby quickly became a passion for her to bring her playlists to life through her open format DJ sets. DJ Cha's extensive music knowledge and unique "old school meets present day" style is what keeps crowds of all ages entertained. "My friends always remind me that I've always known what to play in different settings which is why I now call myself The Supplier of Vibes." You can find DJ Cha performing at long standing to new Boston night life venues such as The Hong Kong club and Urban Wild. DJ Cha is also experienced in performing at college and private events.
